I enjoyed how these stories use loose definitions of the various types of love and play around with the boundaries. We hope that this review will generate broader discussion and encourage the conservation community to look within and outside its boundaries to identify the most appropriate and effective approaches to measure conservation success under varying conditions. I thought I should stay for fear of bringing shame on my family. An anthology of related stories was published The Summit (Sanctuary Book 1) The novels contain additional characters and situations created by the authors.
